All other terms and conditions are excluded, including any terms and conditions which the Buyer may purport to apply under any purchase order or similar document or which could be implied by trade custom, practice or course of dealing.
2.2. In order for Materials to be purchased by the Buyer in accordance with these Conditions, the Buyer shall be subject to acceptance by the Company. An order shall only be accepted by the Company when the Company accepts the offer set out in the order in writing or accepts the offer by dispatching the Goods to the Buyer or commencing the performance of Services, at which point the Contract shall come into existence.
2.3. Any variation to these Conditions (including any special terms agreed between the parties) shall be inapplicable unless agreed in writing signed by the Company. Subject to Clause 4.1, no particulars, statements or descriptions, whether contained in any advertising matter, catalogues, brochures, price lists or otherwise provided by the Company concerning the Goods, nor any oral representations by any employee, agent or representative of the Company shall form part of the Contract or these Conditions or be treated as a representation on the part of the Company. Where the Company issues a quotation for goods or issues a price list for goods it shall not constitute an offer.

3. Cancellation

3.1. The Contract may not be cancelled by the Buyer except with the written consent of the Company.

4. Goods and Services

4.1. The Materials – if available – are described in the Company's applicable published materials, as modified by any applicable Specification. Services shall be provided with reasonable skill and care.
4.2. Where Materials are produced to a Specification requested by the Buyer, the Buyer shall indemnify the Company against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses suffered or incurred by the Company in connection with any claim made against the Company for infringement of a third party's intellectual property rights arising out of or in connection with the Company's use of the Specification.
4.3. The Company reserves the right to alter or vary Materials (including any Specification) if required by any applicable statutory or regulatory requirements, and/or in case of threatened cases for IP infringement.

5. Prices and Minimum Order Values

5.1. Prices, unless specified separately, will be those quoted in the Price List in force at the date the relevant Materials are dispatched and are subject to variation by the Company with prior notice prior to the dispatch of the relevant Goods. Additional delivery charges may be levied for certain categories of Goods as shown in the Price List or otherwise communicated by the Company. All prices are exclusive of value added tax (VAT). The Buyer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from the Company, pay to the Company such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of Materials.
5.2. Where the Buyer orders less than the minimum order quantity for any Goods specified in the Price List, the Company may refuse to accept such order.

6. Payment

6.1. The Company shall invoice the Buyer on dispatch of the Goods or commencement of performance of the Services. The Buyer shall pay the invoice in full and in cleared funds not later than thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice ("Due Date"). The Company reserves the right to suspend and cancel the contract or withhold further supplies of Materials if a Buyer fails to settle the invoice by the Due Date, without prejudice to any existing rights the Company may have in respect of any such unpaid invoice. Payment shall be made to a bank account nominated by the Company. Time shall be of the essence for payment under this Clause.
6.2. Without prejudice to Clause 6.1, if the Buyer disputes any part of the invoice the Buyer shall notify the Company in writing as soon as reasonably practicable, and pay the balance of the invoice in its entirety by the Due Date for payment in accordance with this Clause.
6.3. If the Buyer fails to make a payment, when due, of any sum payable by it under the Contract, then the Buyer shall pay interest on such sum from the Due Date until the actual payment (both before and after judgment) at that annual rate of 12 % per year. The Buyer will reimburse the Company expenses (including costs) incurred in the collection of any overdue amount.
6.4. If in the opinion of the Company the credit-worthiness of the Buyer deteriorates before delivery of Materials, the Company, in its sole discretion, may require full or partial payment of the Price prior to delivery of Materials or the provision of security for payment by the Buyer in a form acceptable to the Company. The Company will notify the Buyer of this requirement.
6.5. The Buyer shall not be entitled to withhold payment of any invoice after its Due Date.

7. Terms of Dispatch and Delivery

7.1. Goods will be delivered EX works (as defined by Incoterms 2010) to the address of the Buyer as notified to the Company by the Buyer when the Buyer places the order and confirmed by the Company.
7.2. Times or dates quoted by the Company for delivery of Materials are intended as estimates only and time shall not be of the essence. The Company shall not be liable in any way for any direct or indirect loss, damage or expense (including loss of profits and liability to third parties) suffered or incurred by the Buyer as a consequence of any delay in delivery.
7.3. The Company reserves the right to deliver Goods by installments in any sequence and to tender a separate invoice in respect of each installment. Where Goods are delivered by installments, the original Contract shall become severable and each installment shall be deemed to be the subject of a separate Contract. No default or failure by the Company in respect of one or more installments shall entitle the Buyer to treat the Contract in respect of another installment as repudiated or to claim damages under it.

8. Acceptance

8.1. On receipt of the Goods the Buyer shall immediately inspect and examine the Goods, and within ten (10) days of delivery shall give written notice to the Company of any alleged shortage or alleged defect. The Buyer shall be deemed to have accepted Materials unless written notice of rejection is served on the Company within ten (10) days of the date of delivery. After acceptance the Buyer shall not be entitled to reject any Materials, which are not in accordance with the Contract.
8.2. The Buyer shall permit the Company to inspect any Goods alleged to be defective or damaged or any cases of packing in any consignment where shortage is alleged to have occurred and, if so requested by the Company, the Buyer shall return the same to the Company.
8.3. If the Buyer fails to comply in any respect with Clause 8.1 or 8.2 and subject to Clause 8.4, the Goods shall be conclusively presumed to be in accordance with the Contract and free from any defect or damage which would be apparent on a reasonable examination of the Goods and the Buyer shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods. If the Buyer, having complied with Clause 8.1 or 8.2, establishes to the Company's reasonable satisfaction that the Goods are not in accordance with the Contract or are defective, the Buyer's sole remedy in respect thereof shall be limited to the Company, as it may elect, making good any shortage, replacing such Goods or refunding, all or part of, the Contract price against return of the Goods. Any return of Goods must be made in accordance with Clause 9. This Clause 8 shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by the Company.
8.4. Unless stated otherwise in the Company's written quotation or another contractual document, Goods have a warranty period of one year from delivery. During the warranty period, equipment that does not meet its published Specifications will be repaired free of charge by site visit or, at the Company's option, by delivery to the Company, with the Company covering the cost of labor, carriage travel and spare parts. This warranty does not cover repairs due to misuse or accidental damage. Repairs outside warranty are subject to the Company's quotation and a 90-day warranty.
8.5. Except as provided in this clause 8, the Company shall have no liability to the Buyer in respect of the failure of any Goods to comply with the Contract. The Company does not give any representations, warranties or undertakings in relation to Materials other than those set out in these Conditions, and accordingly any representation, warranty or condition that might be implied or incorporated into a Contract is excluded from each Contract to the fullest extent permitted by law.

9. Return of Goods to the Company

9.1. No Goods will be accepted for return unless accompanied by the Company's "Application for Customer Return of Product Form" available on request from the Company. Such Goods must be returned to the Company carriage-paid at the Company's instruction only and must be securely packed in their original shipping cartons. The transit risk in all Goods returned to the Company, shall be the Buyer's unless: (a) a carrier nominated by the Company for the purpose is used. Each package shall contain a clear indication of the Buyer's name and address and a list of the contents.
9.2. Where Goods are returned to the Company documentation must be supplied and returned stating the Buyer's name, address, the date and details of the Goods returned.
9.3. Goods returned without the prior written approval of the Company may, at the Company's absolute discretion, be returned or retained at the Buyer's cost without prejudice to any rights or remedies the Company may have.

10. Property and risk

10.1. For the purposes of this Clause 10.1, "Delivery" shall take place when the Goods are delivered to the first carrier. Risk in the Goods shall pass to the Buyer on Delivery. Property and ownership in the Goods, notwithstanding delivery of the Goods to the Buyer, shall not pass from the Company until: (a) the Buyer has paid the Company in full pursuant to Clause 6 (Payment); and (b) no other sums are then outstanding from the Buyer to the Company on any account whatever, whether or not such sums have become due for payment.
10.2. The Buyer shall remain responsible for the Goods pursuant to this Clause, the Buyer shall: (a) hold the Goods with due and proper care for the Company; (b) store the Goods in good condition and separately from its own Goods and those of any other person so that they remain readily identifiable as the Company's property; and (c) insure the Goods to their full value against "All Risks" to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company; provided that the Buyer may sell the Goods in the ordinary course of its business, but may not otherwise deal with, sell, part with possession of, consume or otherwise dispose of the Goods until title to them has passed to the Buyer pursuant to Clause 10.1.
10.3. If before title to the Goods passes to the Buyer the Buyer becomes subject to any of the events listed in Clause 11.2, or the Company reasonably believes that any such event is about to happen and notifies the Buyer accordingly, then, provided that the Goods have not been repaired or irrevocably incorporated into another product, without limiting any other right or remedy the Company may have, the Company may at any time require the Buyer to redeliver the Goods and, if the Buyer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Buyer or of any third party where the Goods are stored in order to recover them. The Buyer gives the Company irrevocable authority to enter its premises without notice for the purpose of collecting and removing the Goods in accordance with this Clause 10.3.
10.4. Any sale by the Buyer permitted by Clause 10.2 shall, as between the Buyer and its customer, be effected by the Buyer as principal and not as agent, but as between the Buyer and the Company the Buyer shall have a fiduciary duty to account to the Company for the proceeds of any such sale up to the total amount outstanding to the Company, and pending such accounting shall hold the proceeds for the Company.

11. Default by the Buyer

11.1. If the Buyer becomes subject to any of the "Default Events" listed in Clause 11.2, or the Company reasonably believes that the Buyer is about to become subject to any of them and notifies the Buyer accordingly, then, without limiting any other right or remedy available to the Company, the Company may cancel or suspend all further deliveries under the Contract or under any other contract between the Buyer and the Company without incurring any liability to the Buyer, and all outstanding sums in respect of Materials delivered to the Buyer shall become immediately due and payable.
11.2. Each of the following is a "Default Event": (a) the Buyer fails to pay for Materials in accordance with Clause 6; (b) the Buyer fails to pay any other debt due and payable to the Company by the relevant due date; (c) the Buyer commits a breach of these Conditions or the Company's policies; (d) any distress or levies is levied upon any of the Buyer's goods; (e) a petition is presented, ordered, meeting convened, resolution passed or any step is taken by any person (including the Company) with a view to the winding up (whether solvent or insolvent) of the Buyer, or the Buyer ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a material part of its business; or (f) the Buyer stops or suspends or threatens to suspend payment of all or a material part of its debts, or is unable to pay its debts.
11.3. Termination of a Contract, however arising, shall not affect any of the parties' rights and remedies that have accrued as at termination. Clauses, which expressly or by implication survive termination of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect.

12. Limitation of Liability

12.1. Nothing in a Contract or these Conditions shall restrict or exclude the Company's liability: (a) in respect of fraudulent misrepresentation; (b) for death or personal injury caused by negligence; or (c) any other liability of the Company which may not be lawfully excluded or limited.
12.2. Subject to Clauses 8 and 12.1, the provisions of this Clause 12 set out the entire liability of the Company (including any liability for the acts or omissions of its employees, officers, agents and sub-contractors) to the Buyer under or in connection with a Contract, including for any representation, statement or tortious act or omission (including negligence), and any Materials supplied by the Company in connection with a Contract.
12.3. Subject to Clause 12.1, the Company shall not be liable to the Buyer for any: (a) loss of profit, business, revenue, anticipated savings or goodwill, in each case whether direct or indirect; or (b) any type of special, indirect or consequential loss or damage (including business interruption).
12.4. Subject to Clause 12.1, the Company's total liability arising under or in connection with a Contract, or its contemplated performance, shall be limited to the Contract price.
12.5. Each exclusion or limitation of liability in Clauses 12.1 to 12.4 shall be construed as a separate and independent exclusion. If any exclusion is found by a court or competent authority of any jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify such void or unenforceable exclusion to a valid exclusion which, as far as possible, has the same legal and commercial effect as that which it has replaced, and the legality, validity and enforceability of the remainder of these Conditions in that jurisdiction shall not be affected.

13. Trade Compliance

13.1. The Company and the Buyer agree to comply fully with all applicable laws, including but not limited to export control laws, governing trans-border sales, re-sales, shipments and transfers of Goods. The Company's obligation to supply Goods is contingent upon receiving any required governmental authorizations.
13.2. If a license or consent of any government or other authority is required for the acquisition or use of Goods, the Buyer shall obtain the license and consent at its own expense and if requested produce evidence of it to the Company on demand. Failure to obtain any license or consent does not entitle the Buyer to withhold or delay any payment of the price of Goods. Any additional expenses or charges incurred by the Company resulting from such failure shall be paid by the Buyer.

14. Set off and counterclaim

14.1. The Buyer waives all rights of set off or counterclaim which the Buyer may have or allege to have against the Company or for any other reason whatsoever.
14.2. The Company may, without limiting any other rights or remedies that it may have, set off any amount owed to it by the Buyer against any amount, which it owes to the Buyer.

15. Force Majeure

15.1. If the Company is prevented from or delayed in delivering any Materials by an event of Force Majeure (as defined below in Clause 15.2), the Company shall be entitled to cancel or suspend deliveries of such Materials without prejudice to its rights to payment for any Materials already delivered. The Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly through or in consequence of such Force Majeure.
15.2. "Force Majeure" means any event or circumstance not within the reasonable control of the Company, including, without limitation to the generality of the foregoing, industrial action, war, governmental action or regulation, act of God, riots or non-availability of stocks or materials, either party's contract with a third party or an event of Force Majeure continuing for a period of (6) months.

16. Intellectual Property and Data Protection

Unless otherwise agreed in writing and only permitted with the prior approval of the Company, all Goods may be sold or re-sold by Buyer only in the packages and packaging in which the Goods were supplied by the Company and in no case may any trade mark other than the trade mark carried by the Goods at the time of delivery be marked on or applied in relation to the Goods by the Buyer.
16.2. No right or license is granted under the Contract to the Buyer under any patent, trade mark, copyright, registered design or other intellectual property right, except the right to use the Goods.
16.3. The Company warrants that the Products delivered hereunder will conform at the time of delivery to the Specifications expressly agreed to in writing by the Company. The Company warrants that the Services performed hereunder will comply at the time of completion with the Specifications expressly agreed to in writing. The limited warranty set out in this section shall not apply to (i) Goods that have been improperly or inadequately used or stored or (ii) Defects caused by abuse, negligence or accident, or loss of damage to the Materials after Delivery. The Company may provide the Buyer with a certificate of analysis with the products; however, by doing so the Company makes no warranty or representation regarding the performance of such goods or any related services.
16.4. The Company collects, uses and discloses personal data for purposes connected with the Contract, e.g. order handling, payments, etc. Data may be collected from individuals or from other (e.g. published) sources. Laws and practices relating to the protection of personal data may differ, and such laws may not offer the same level of protection outside the European Economic Area. 18.3. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in these Conditions, no contract shall be construed as the Company granting the Buyer agency or distribution rights in respect of the sale or distribution of the Goods. For the avoidance of doubt, any sale of Goods as between the Buyer and a third party shall be effected by the Buyer as principal and not as agent or distributor of the Company and the Buyer shall not hold itself out as being an agent or distributor of the Company.

20.2. By making an offer in accordance with these Conditions, the Buyer acknowledges that it has not been induced to enter into a Contract by any representation or warranty other than those contained in these Conditions, and agrees that it shall have no remedy in respect of any other such representation or warranty except in the case of fraud.

21. Miscellaneous Provisions relating to these Conditions

21.1. Any term of these Conditions which is or may be void or unenforceable shall to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability be deemed severable and shall not affect any other provision hereof.
21.2. A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. Unless explicitly provided differently in these Conditions, no failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
21.3. Except as set out in these Conditions, no variation of the Contract, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Company.
